PASTOR'S NOTE

A child snooping around C.S. Lewis's house once asked, "What's behind the wardrobe?" Lewis responded by creating one of the world's best-loved children's series, The Chronicles of Narnia. But the books, though written for children, have led many adults to a greater understanding of their own spirituality, and the varieties of religious experience. Come learn more at our Wednesday night Lenten study series.

JOIN US FOR OUR Lenten study series, "Live Like a Narnian: Exploring Religious Experience Through the Narnia Novels of C.S. Lewis." Held each Wednesday, from March 8 to April 5, 7:30-8:30 pm. Babysitting available, call 233-4371.
